Music events

SINGING is a wonderful fun way to make friends, relieve stress and lift your spirits at the same time as improving your breathing, posture and all round health and well being. Arts Dream Selsey are happy to say we now have two regular singing activities in Selsey, that are open to all regardless of singing experience.

SELSEY COMMUNITY CHOIR – with the wonderful Matt Hoff accompanied by the magnificent Sylvia Rota on piano

£45 for 12 weeks

Starts back on Wednesday 13 January for 12 weeks.
 7 – 8.30pm in the Methodist Hall, Selsey High Street

If you haven't been before, come along and try it out as we always welcome newcomers. Full details will be in the Arts Dream website early December, or contact Gillian Plowman or Belinda Gannon (please see contact details overleaf)

SELSEY SING YOUR HEART OUT!
 A new fun, friendly and supportive series of open singing workshops to be held at St Wilfred's RC Church Hall, Church Road, Selsey. On Monday afternoons beginning January 2016. Details will be confirmed soon.

£3 per session

Each week includes relaxation techniques, breathing and vocal exercises as well of course, as singing a wide range of songs! For further details please contact Belinda Gannon (see bottom of page overleaf)
